

Your Health Information at Osler Medical Centre

What is important to know

Your health information is collected used, disclosed and protected under the authorization of the Health and Information Protection Act of Saskatchewan (HIPA)

At Osler Medical Centre, we only use your health information to support the health services we provide to you. Employees at our Centre will only collect and use your information to:

- Provide treatment and care,
- Verify your eligibility for health services
- Conduct investigations or reviews of practice
- Complete research under ethical review
- Support health provider education
- For internal management and administrative purposes

Except as allowed under HIPA you will be asked for your consent before we give your information to anyone other than another health service provider involved in your care

Please contact us if you have any concerns about your health information or want to know more.